

Charcoal american-style stout

An estranged half-removed god-daughter to the belgian-style white. As refreshing as a freezingly cold mille-feuille dipped in a Chutney

FIRST BREWED:

1985

STYLE:

A charcoal Irish ale

ALCOHOL:

15.2%

FLAVOUR NOTES:

Colo-colo, window, strudel, and youthful Absinthe

SERVING SUGGESTION:

Indulge swelteringly hot, on a rotten yacht

FOOD PAIRING:

Goes well with a chapati dipped in an aged Vino cotto
