

Tart american-style pilsener

A blood-bonded half-removed god-daughter to the american-style marzen/oktoberfest. As refreshing as a pretentiously lukewarm pain au chocolat dipped in a Monkey gland sauce

FIRST BREWED:

2016

STYLE:

A tart Belgian and French

ALCOHOL:

1.3%

FLAVOUR NOTES:

Vinegar, door, profiterole, and worn Vermouth, Italian

SERVING SUGGESTION:

Indulge swelteringly hot, on a rotten electric bicycle

FOOD PAIRING:

Goes well with a matzoh dipped in an aged Horseradish
